THE EVANGELIST ARRIVES

Paris Pastor Helping at First Baptist Church Meetings

Pastor-Evangelist G. W. Clark of Paris arrived last evening at 8:15, being delayed by a change of time for the midday train. He will preach at 2:30 and 7 p. m. today, and from now on.

Pastor Chadwick preached last evening on "The Believer's Security," to a good congregation.

Numbers remained for an aftermeeting of prayer and praise—a short talk was made by Bro. J. P. Campbell, recently come from West Virginia to be Pastor at Mayslick—who also led the afternoon meeting. Brother Clark also came in time to take part in the prayer-meeting.

Remember the meetings this afternoon and evening. Come now; bring your friends.

INJUNCTION DISMISSED

Judge Cochran Decides That His Court Has No Jurisdiction

The injunction filed in the United States District Court at Covington by the Louisville and Cincinnati Packet Company against James S. Brown, County Judge of Gallatin county, Ky.; R. B. Brown, Senator from Gallatin county and W. B. Graham, Wharfmaster at Warsaw, Ky., was dismissed by order of Judge Cochran, who sustained the motion of the defendants to dismiss for want of jurisdiction.

This case was the first of its kind ever filed in the Federal Court, and by reason of the ruling of Judge Cochran will probably be the last.

The suit was to enjoin the defendants from prosecuting certain damage suits against the Packet Company which are pending in the Quarterly Court of Gallatin county, and also to enjoin the defendants from procuring other persons to prosecute similar suits.

The motion to dismiss was based upon the facts that there were no Federal questions involved, and that all parties to the suit were residents of Kentucky, and therefore the case properly belonged to the state Courts.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE

Daughters of Rev. J. O. A. Vaught in a Dangerous Position

The following from The Frankfort Journal will be of interest in this city, the former home of the Rev. J. O. A. Vaught and family—

Rev. J. O. A. Vaught has just received word of the miraculous escape from death of his two daughters, Mrs. Ray and Miss Minnie Vaught, who are on their way to Pueblo, Col. While passing through Missouri on a Missouri Pacific train the engine struck a wagon loaded with large boxes, seemingly well made and quite heavy. The wagon was torn to pieces and the boxes scattered along the track. The train came to a standstill, and upon investigation it was found that the boxes were filled with dynamite. How it came about that it did not explode will probably never be known. Experts on the train declared that if one piece had exploded all would have gone off, and that there was enough there to have blown the train and every one on it absolutely to pieces.

SOCIAL SESSION

Greetings to Messrs. Frank Fogarty and Thomas W. Kelley

There was something doing at the Elks Home last night.

The occasion was a "social session," to meet Bro. Frank Fogarty of Brooklyn and Mr. Tom Kelley of New York.

Nearly a hundred members of Maysville Lodge No. 704 were there, dainty refreshments were served, and all who attended were most delightfully entertained by the splendid music of Mr. Kelley, who is a master of the piano, and by the songs and stories of Mr. Fogarty, who may be justly classed as an accomplished raconteur.

The affair was entirely informal; and those who lingered till the close had but one regret—that the night was not longer.

Messrs. Fogarty and Kelley are here to put on a minstrel performance for the Elks at the Opera-house the latter part of this month, and it goes without saying that the entertainment will eclipse all former ones given by the local Lodge.

Read THE LEDGER for all the home news.

Since yesterday noon and 8 o'clock this morning there was a change of 25° in the weather.

THE VIA STOCK COMPANY.

The Frankfort (Ky.) Daily Call, November 16th, says—

"The large audience which greeted the opening performance of the Via Stock Company at Capital Theater last night must have been a very pleasing sight to the Management of this popular playhouse and the company who so ably presented the stirring melodrama, 'Beware of Men.' A better performance than that given by the above company last evening is seldom if ever seen."

It isn't far to find what smashed Boss Rule in Cincinnati. Your Uncle BILLIE TAFT did it with his little mallet at Akron.

In their eagerness to deliver the ballot-boxes to the proper parties, some of the thieving election officers in New York threw them into North river.

WHAT a pity that some of those Louisville election officers hadn't been sitting on those ballot-boxes that were fished out of the North river in New York.

SOME of Governor-elect PATTISON's fool friends over in Ohio are already trying to kill him off. They are putting him forward for the Vice-Presidency in 1908.

THE HONORABLE JAMES HARGIS was badly beaten in his race for re-election as County Judge of Breathitt; but he still has a leadpipe cinch on his membership in the Democratic State Central Committee.

THERE have been a number of misleading statements as to what constitutes the result in the vote on the Constitutional Amendment. It's exactly this way: Take all the votes cast for the Amendment, and all the votes cast against the Amendment; if a majority voted "Yes," the Amendment carries; if a majority voted "No," the Amendment is lost. The votes cast for candidates on the ticket have nothing whatever to do with the votes cast on the Constitutional Amendment.

WHATEVER else one may think of WILLIAM R. HEARST, every honest man will wish him God speed in his war against the Tammany election thieves. They have heretofore had all sorts of financial backing; but Mr. HEARST has a matter of a few millions all by his self.

LAST year the people of Chicago took a fool notion to elect a Democratic Mayor who made them believe that he was going to give them "municipal ownership" of the street railways right away p. d. q.; and he has been such a disappointment that they have just elected a lot of Republican officials.

OHIO has an honest Election Law, and the Bosses can't get hold of the election machinery. Kentucky has a dishonest Election Law, and the Bosses and other thieves and thugs are the only ones who are permitted to run the election machine. That accounts for the defeat of the Ring in Cincinnati and for the success of the Mob in Louisville.

SOME fellow who doesn't know where Mayor STALLCUP lives, but who can figure out how long it will take a man to walk around the globe if he rides on a cow, can get the job of making fires in the new Government Building. Although it isn't necessary, the Secretary of the Treasury has kindly asked the Snivel Service Commission to give the place to a resident of this city or county—if one be found who can fill the bill. Good LORD, what a farce; great Heavens, what a fraud!

One result of Tuesday's elections over which all honest Kentuckians, of whatever politics, can rejoice, is the defeat of Jim Hargis and his gang in Breathitt. MISTAKES . . .

Are frequently far reaching, and universally so when one buys any article other than the very best in the way of supplies for the table. The country is full of stale, inferior and poisonous stuff, which is every day being palmed off on an unsuspecting public for good and wholesome foods. Because of this the straightforward, honorable and conscientious dealers throughout the country are united in an effort to induce Congress to pass a universal pure food law, which will prohibit the manufacture and sale of impure and poisonous foods, such as are now being sold by unscrupulous dealers, and consequently drive out of business all the "cheap johns" concerned that deal only in such stuff. I began business in Maysville over twenty-five years ago determined to only handle the best, act honorably with my customers and never misrepresent anything to make a sale. Whatever of success I have had with you I attribute to at all times standing by that determination. My experience of more than forty years in the business has qualified me to know the good from the bad when making my purchases, and has also satisfied me the true road to success is to deal fairly and honorably with the public, sell the best goods at fair prices and never practice deception to make a sale.

I am now getting in my larger purchases for the fall and winter trade and I do not hesitate to say that when all in and opened up I shall have the largest, cleanest, most varied stock of high grade goods ever offered in our city. My stock of Canned Goods and Fancy Groceries of all kinds will be immense, bought at the lowest prices any jobber can buy them, very much lower than such goods can be bought at today, consequently I shall be prepared to meet any and all competition. My special brands of Red Canvas Hams and Breakfast Bacon and Fine Leaf Lard are becoming more popular each day with those who only want the very best.

Perfection Flour is the leading flour and the sales are increasing rapidly because it has been proved to be the best and purest sold in this market; always reliable. I don't have to be continually changing to find something better. It is truly what the word implies—Perfection.

In fine Blended Coffees I have the run, because I sell only the best at reasonable prices, always fresh, still going at 15c, 20c and 25c. I want every person to visit my store, and a special invitation is extended to country people when in our city to make my house their headquarters. You are always welcome, and it will be the old-fashioned Kentucky kind. I pay cash for Butter, Eggs, Poultry and Country Produce such as I need in my trade, but will only buy the very best. If I please you I want you to be sure and tell all your neighbors and friends. If anything wrong, come direct to me and don't mention it to any one else; I make everything right.

Louisville Can Learn a Lesson From Breathitt

LEXINGTON HERALD.

The Democratic ticket for municipal offices in Louisville, according to the returns made, received a majority of the votes cast and will be declared elected. No reasonable being, with any acquaintance with the condition of affairs in Louisville, after reading an account of the pretended election held there Tuesday, will for a moment think that the so-called Democratic ticket did receive a majority of the votes cast, or that it is the choice of the majority of the people of Louisville.

The supporters of the Fusion ticket made a mistake in announcing their intention of going to the polls unarmed, and in carrying out that intention. They should have taken a lesson from the Fusion candidates in Breathitt county, and the result would have been in Louisville the same as the result in Breathitt.

The ticket which will be declared elected in Louisville is no more a Democratic ticket than was the Hargis ticket in Breathitt. It simply masqueraded under the name of Democracy, and if those who controlled it lived in a Republican state and a Republican city they would be Republicans. They are a type of men who claim the name and seize the organization of the dominant party in the state in which they happen to live. Cox, in Cincinnati, is a Republican; Murphy, in New York, is a Democrat.

It is a misfortune for Louisville that the Fusion ticket did not win. After reading the account of the election there in The Courier-Journal, which supported the Democratic ticket and has never been accused of giving the ticket which it supported the worst of it, one is forced to the conclusion that the election in Louisville was stolen by the so-called Democratic machine, acting through corrupt election officers and more corrupt policemen. It was as bold highway robbery as was ever committed. The policemen, paid by the taxes of the citizens, acting under orders of the machine, permitted and committed outrages which should have been met, and which can, under such condition of affairs as exist in Louisville, be met only by force. Had the Fusion workers in Louisville followed the example of the Fusion workers in Breathitt county and let it be understood the first thing in the morning that force would be met with force and fraud stopped at the point of the pistol, there would have been a fair election. And such criminals as the blackguard Gentile, who is not unknown in Lexington, who assaulted Dr. Bullitt, are not the greatest criminals. He and his followers would not have committed the acts they did had they not been assured the protection of those in authority. The real criminals are those who give them protection, and they are the ones who should both be held to public scorn and punished by criminal prosecution.

Louisville seems to be the only city in which the revolt against the continued rule of bosses did not triumph. Cincinnati, Philadelphia, New York, in each city except Louisville the people won. The result in Louisville is a misfortune for Louisville and Kentucky, but it is more of a misfortune for the Democratic party. That party, as a party, does not deserve the blame for such conduct as was perpetrated in Louisville, and yet it will receive that blame. It will receive the condemnation of every citizen who is in favor of an honest expression of the popular desire through the ballot. There is no doubt that the people will ultimately win. It may be necessary, as it was in Breathitt county, for citizens ready to give their lives to take their guns to the polls; to make the criminals who attempt, in the name of the Democratic party, to thwart the will of the people and steal election certificates, face the certainty of death if they do steal.

At this election Breathitt is redeemed. At the next election Louisville will be redeemed. If the Democratic party in the state assumes the responsibility for the conduct in Louisville, indorses, approves and stands for such conduct, it will suffer, and will and ought to be defeated. The people have begun to learn that they have rights, and that those rights can be enforced. The day before the election there were few who even hoped, fewer still who expected, that Cincinnati would be relieved of Coxism and Breathitt of Hargisism. The last six months have made marvelous changes in the political conditions of America, and though the manifestations of that difference are local, the spirit which made those manifestations possible is not local, it is National. From New York to California, from Maine to Florida, in every state, in every county, there are hundreds of citizens who as a rule take no part in politics, but who have scanned the news from New York and Philadelphia with profound interest. The triumph of Jerome in New York, the victory of the city ticket in Philadelphia, the defeat of Cox in Cincinnati, the revolution in Breathitt, each teaches a lesson to Kentuckians; and such conduct as was perpetrated in Louisville, such conduct as The Courier-Journal itself describes, even if we discount all that was published in the papers supporting the Fusion ticket, will not be tolerated. Better far that several, or several score, thugs, whether they wear civilian's clothes, penitentiary stripes or policemen's uniforms, be sent to the morgue than that such conditions be allowed to continue in the chief city of Kentucky.

We are a Democrat. The Herald is a Democratic paper, and for that reason we deplore the defeat of the Fusion ticket in Louisville and rejoice in the election of the Fusion ticket in Breathitt.

The process of whitening sugar by means of wet clay was discovered in a curious way. A hen which had been walking through a clay puddle proceeded on the even tenor of her way through a sugar house, and it was seen that wherever biddy's tracks were the sugar was white, which led to the adoption of the present method of bleaching.

The British Museum catalogue now contains over 3,860,000 entries and is growing at the rate of 60,000 a year. The library contains forty-three miles of shelves. Every year 276,000 numbers of newspapers are added to the collection. Annually about 53,000 books are received under the copyright act. 10,000 are presented and about 30,000 volumes chiefly of contemporary foreign literature are purchased.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars. P. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A MAYSVILLE CASE.

Many More Like It in Maysville.

The following case is but one of many similar occurring daily in Maysville. It is an easy matter to verify its correctness. Surely you cannot ask for better proof than such a conclusive evidence.

C. L. Hubbard, employed in Cablish's grocery, Cox Building, and living at 325 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"As I stated in a testimonial given in 1900, Doan's Kidney Pills brought me positive relief from inflammation of the bladder and a disturbed action of the kidneys. After some time I felt a slight return of the trouble but again used Doan's Kidney Pills and again found complete relief. Now, after nearly five years I feel able to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills with even greater confidence than before. The results of its use in my case have been very satisfactory. I got the remedy at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore.

A modern Hercules and iron-jawed man was touring the saloons last evening and for a small stipend doing feats of strength that astounded his beholders. Holding a man weighing 140 pounds seated on a chair, in an elevated position with his teeth, was one of his ordinary tricks. He was certainly a giant in strength.

Editor Mark A. Donovan of The Winchester Democrat was down yesterday visiting his uncle, John Bannon, of the county, who is seriously ill. Mr. Bannon is 80 years old, and one of Mason's prosperous, highly esteemed citizens. Mr. Henry Bannon of Cincinnati arrived last evening at the bedside of his father.

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday reversed the decision of the Kentucky Court of Appeals in the case of the Union Refrigerator Transit Company v. the Commonwealth of Kentucky, holding that cars owned by the company and used in other states cannot be taxed in this state, even though it be a Kentucky corporation. The opinion of the Court was delivered by Justice Brown.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Jake Caproni, the Market street fruiterer, while exploring the mysteries of a big bunch of bananas, unearthed a huge tarantula, who was as mad as a defeated candidate. Mr. Caproni has the ugly brute in a glass jar, where he can harm no one.

PSORIASIS AND ECZEMA

Milk Crust, Tetter, Ringworm, and Scalled Head, and Every Form of Torturing, Disfiguring Humors from Infancy to Age.

CURED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin, as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of the scalp, as in scalled head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter, and salt rheum—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety and great economy have made them the standard skin cures and humors remedies of the civilized world.

CAPT. GRAHAM'S CURE

Of Distressing Humour.

Captain W. S. Graham, 1321 Eoff St., Wheeling, W. Va., writing under date of June 14, '04, says: "I am so grateful I want to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to me. I suffered for a long time with sores on my face and back. Some doctors said I had blood poison, and others that I had barbers' itch. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My friends tell me my skin now looks as clear as a baby's, and I tell them Cuticura Soap and Ointment did it."

Cuticura Soap, Ointment, and Pills are sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Boston, Sole Props. Send for "How to Cure Every Humour."

More than 75,000,000 pounds of canned chicken is put up every year in the United States, and Chicago has the bulk of the business. In the canning establishments at the stock yards packing houses the chickens are cleaned, cooked and shot into cans at the rate of 5,000 pounds an hour. One concern puts up a million pounds a week in the rush season. The output of canned chicken in the United States last year was valued at more than $7,500,000.
